

Dear Friends and Supporters of NOAH,

We launched into the fall season with our inaugural conference last month in Austin, Texas! Thank you to all who attended and helped make this event such a success.

NOAH has been busy wrapping up and looking forward to new projects and collaborations in the field of Arts in Health. Please stay tuned as we keep you updated, and if you aren't a member, now is a wonderful time to join us -- you can do so here.

As we've mentioned on our Facebook and website, NOAH is hiring! We are looking for an Administrative Assistant to work part-time with the NOAH Administrator. If you're interested, you can find the job posting here. This position will be open until it is filled, so applicants should move quickly.

As always, please contact me at director@thenoah.net with any questions or concerns!

Wishing you all a pleasant October,

Katie White Swanson
Administrator, NOAH

Opportunity for Artists:

As a community for site-specific art, CODAworx is on a mission to transform every space in the world. They connect all members of the art commission industry, matching creative talent with creative opportunities, and providing digital tools for reaching the community and streamlining the commission process.

CODAworx offers a free basic membership to artists, art administrators, architects and interior designers which grants many great ways to showcase your projects to an international network of creative professionals. They understand the importance of healing art projects and have established key ways to promote amazing art in healthcare spaces, including:

- An issue of the monthly CODAmagazine dedicated solely to Healing Art
- A Healthcare category in their project library and the annual international design + art CODAawards

Your peers are getting recognition for the great work they are doing and you can too! Join this network of industry creatives and showcase your commission art projects today.

Arts in Health Training:

THE CREATIVE CENTER
at University Settlement

The Creative Center Training Institute for Artists and Administrators in Healthcare and Creative Aging 2018
Monday, March 26 through Friday, March 30, 2018

This week-long training, funded by the National Endowment for the Arts and the NYC Department of Cultural Affairs, will focus on the role of the arts in healthcare and creative aging, providing theoretical and didactic approaches to implementing and sustaining high-quality arts programming in a variety of settings serving people living with illness and older adults across the aging spectrum. Artists, as well as arts, nursing home and hospital administrators will be given everything they need to create "best practice" arts programming in community and senior centers, hospital, healthcare, nursing homes and long-term care facilities, along with rehabilitation, palliative and hospice settings. Founded in 1994, The Creative Center at University Settlement has been training artists and administrators from across the US since 2002 to replicate our model in a variety of healthcare settings using the unique training program featured in our book, Artists in Residence: The Creative Center's Approach to Arts in Healthcare.

Presentations, workshops and site visits, led by national leaders in the field of arts and aging, will include:

- Getting Old: The Aging Body, Mind and Soul
- A New Perspective on Dementia
- Crafting Careers in Arts-in-Healthcare and Creative Aging
- Meet Me at MoMA: The Alzheimer's Project at The Museum of Modern Art
- Older Professional Artists: A Model for Society
- Opening Minds Through Art: an intergenerational program
- Sustaining Arts in Health Programming: from "Friending" to "Fundraising"

- Creative Aging and Arts in Healthcare: The Current "State" of the Field

For online application, visit our homepage, www.thecreativecenter.org or email info@thecreativecenter.org. Applications must be received by Friday, December 29, 2017. Applicants will be notified by Wednesday, January 31, 2018.

Fees: $350 per selected participant. Artists/administrators working in NYC (Su Casa, Senior Centers, or any NYC facility) may apply for the discounted rate of $250. Lunch and all supplies included each day.

Lodging and transportation to and from NYC not included. For information, please call 646-465-5313 or rglazer@thecreativecenter.org.

Support for The Creative Center Training Institute for Artists and Administrators in Healthcare and Creative Aging comes from the National Endowment for the Arts and the NYC Department of Cultural Affairs.
